STEPHENSON IS THE CANDIDATE

That Is Receiving The Most Attention In The Senatorial Fight Just Now.

SEEKS UNEXPIRED TERM OF SPOONER

Other Legislative News Is Overshadowed By The Great Contest About To Be Waged For The Toga.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., March 5.—Isaac Stephenson of Marinette remains the strong favorite in the senatorial situation, but various other candidates have engaged hotel headquarters and have managers on the ground watching their interests.

Only One Out.
Stephenson is the only announced candidate thus far, but Congressman Becht, Cooper, J. H. Davidson, besides Governor J. O. Davidson and Lieut. Gov. Connor are ready to jump in at any moment which may be deemed advantageous. Ex-Senator J. H. Hatten came today but made no announcement of candidacy. Walter L. Houser will come this afternoon.

Willing to Wait.
Most of these embryo candidates profess a willingness to give Stephenson first chance and some declare they will not be candidates unless it appears that Stephenson has no substantial show of election.

The Watchers.
Senator Morris and Assemblyman Miller of La Crosse are watching the game for Esch. Every member of the legislature is being "felt," but few are giving pledges. None of the managers will hazard any figures on the relative strength of the candidates.

Davidson-Connor.
The Davidson-Connor movement is probably being pushed harder than any other but not in open. The governor himself is industriously "buzzing." An attempt to get from the executive office an indication of its feeling with respect to Stephenson met with absolute silence.

A Marinette Dispatch.
A Marinette dispatch under today's date says Isaac Stephenson when interviewed denied any "deal" for the senatorship and says he wants to be elected on his merits. The fight two years hence concerns him.

In the Senate.
Of eight bills on the senate calendar last night for ordering to engrossment, seven were laid over and one was advanced, showing that the senate had not prepared for work in the time that the resignation of Senator Spooner was the sensation of the day. The only bill advanced was a technical amendment to the law for the registration of electors. Among the measures laid over were the Barker "wide sheet" hotel regulation bill, the Froemming bill to increase the number of state free employment offices, the Owen bill to increase exemptions from the competitive merit class of the state civil service, and the senate committee on agriculture bill to forbid the state veterinarian from using his official position to advance his private interests.

Heating Plant.
Two bills to appropriate for a heating plant and barn at the executive residence, were killed, their provisions having been incorporated in another measure. A memorial was received from the legislature of South Dakota asking Wisconsin to join a movement to give federal courts jurisdiction over polygamy and divorces. A new bill was introduced by Senator Fridt for

ASSEMBLYMAN FOUND IN A SANITARIUM

Marinette County Legislator Is Discovered in Milwaukee by His Wife.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Marinette, Wis., March 5.—Assemblyman W. H. Falvey is mysteriously missing. He started for Madison last week and was last seen in Milwaukee Found Today.

Marinette, Wis., March 5.—Assemblyman Falvey of Marinette, who disappeared last week in this city, was found this afternoon at a sanitarium here. Very ill. Assemblyman Falvey was found by his wife who, distracted and alone had searched every hospital in town for her husband. He was taken suddenly ill, he says, and was picked up by doctors. The nature of his malady is unknown.

INFANTRY GUARD AT THE HARGIS HEARING

Forty Men of Second Infantry Go to Jackson to Remain During Trial.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Lexington, Ky., March 5.—Forty men of the Second Kentucky Infantry arrived here today and went to Jackson, Breathitt county, to remain there during the trial of Judge James Hargis on the charge of assassinating Dr. D. D. Cox.

Kankakee Bench Show.
Kankakee, Ill., March 5.—The annual bench show of the Kankakee

the committee on state departments, extending the Milwaukee tract index law to counties of 50,000 or more population.

Brookhausen Bill.
The assembly passed the Brookhausen joint resolution last evening after short debate by Brookhausen, Burke and Reynolds, memorializing congress and state legislatures, to carry on investigation into the problem of child labor by the department of labor. The occasion for the movement is the fact that those who desire to suppress the real facts of the conditions attending female and child labor are always attempting to have the investigation of this question referred to the census bureau, which finally publishes nothing more than a statistical resume, without picturing adequately the evils attending the problem. This unsympathetic way of exposing conditions is aimed at by the resolution.

Seven Killed.
Seven bills were ordered to engrossment, and two indefinitely. Under a suspension of the rules the Everett bill creating the town of Presque Isle in Vilas county was passed. Six other unimportant bills were ordered to engrossment, and two indefinitely postponed. Among the last two was Social Democrat Webers bill providing for 30 hours of consecutive rest in every seven days.

Duplicate Salaries.
The legislature received from Secretary of State Frear last night a statement of so-called duplications of salaries under the state service. The statement is a list of the names of 36 persons, most of whom receive pay from the state for work under the university regents and additional pay from various departments at the capitol. Most of the cases are insignificant, in amount and few of university people who devoted vacations and other time outside of the school work and acted in expert capacities for the state tax commission or railroad commission. Some of the more important items are:

The Items.
Richard Fisher, chemist dairy and food department, $1,800 a year; professor of pharmacy, $700.

John M. True, secretary state board of agriculture, $3,500; secretary livestock sanitary board, $150.

W. D. Pence, professor of railroad engineering, $700; services for tax commission, $1,500.

T. S. Adams, professor of political economy, $2,000; services for tax commission from $100 to $200 a month, making about $1,500 a year.

B. A. Emerson, clerk for railroad commission, $35 a month as clerk and $55 a month as janitor.

S. E. Sparling, assistant professor of political science, $1,400 and $10 per day when serving as chairman of the civil service commission.

E. A. Buge, professor of zoology $4,500; $500 as director of state geological and natural history survey.

L. S. Smith, professor of engineering, $2,000, and $332 in 1906 for investigating water powers.

Charles McCarthy, lecturer on political science, $1,000, and $1,500 as librarian of legislative reference department.

DOUMA MEETING HAS LITTLE DISTURBANCE

No Member of the Imperial Family, However, Appeared to Take Part in the Exercises.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Petersburg, March 5.—The duma, or lower house of the Russian parliament, was formally opened at noon today in the Tauride palace in the presence of all the ministers and many high functionaries. No member of the imperial family was present. There was no serious disorder.

After the adjournment of parliament a great demonstration was organized in honor of the socialist deputies. Revolutionary speeches were made, red flags displayed, and the crowd swelled to forty thousand packing the streets for blocks around the palace. The police charged and broke up the demonstration. Many persons were beaten but none were seriously injured.

BROOKLYN TEAM OFF ON TRIP BY WATER

Trolley Dodgers Will Sail to South and Play Exhibition Games With Minor League Clubs.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New York, March 5.—When the players of the Brooklyn baseball club board the Clyde line steamer, Comanche, scheduled to sail today for Jacksonville, Fla., it will mark the start on the best and most expensive trip ever planned by the Brooklyn club. The team will remain in the south just one month and will play exhibition games with several of the clubs of the Southern and South Atlantic leagues.

Michigan Fruit Growers.
Farmington, Mich., March 5.—Many prominent fruit growers exchanged views and experiences today at the opening of a two days' convention under the auspices of the Michigan State Horticultural society. Sessions were held both morning and afternoon and a wide variety of topics discussed. Governor Warner has accepted an invitation to address the fruit growers this evening.

GOLF ASSOCIATION OF WEST CONVENES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Result of Election Already Known—Annual Session May Be Held During Championship Match.

Chicago, Ill., March 5.—The annual meeting of the Western Golf Association, which takes place tonight at the Grand Pacific Hotel, promises to be more than usual interesting and important. The meeting will elect officers for the year and choose the dates for the annual championships. The election will be a pure formality as no opposition exists to the ticket prepared by the nominations committee. This ticket calls for the elevation of Albert R. Gates, at present secretary of the association, to the presidency. The other nominations are: Vice-president, Edward F. Carey, Exmoor Country Club; Secretary, Charles F. Thompson, Homewood Country Club; Treasurer, J. C. Brocklebank, Edgewater Golf Club. One of the matters that promises to evoke considerable discussion is the proposition of changing the date of the annual session to the week of the annual amateur championship. The two events to be held in conjunction. The events to be held in conjunction. The question came up at the meeting last year, but because of the difference of opinion it was allowed to remain unsettled for the time. In addition to these matters tonight's meeting will give attention to several minor changes in the constitution of the association, and also to a proposed rearrangement and reclassification of sections.

THIRTY INJURED BY POWDER EXPLOSION

Many May Die as Result of the Accident—Several Buildings Wrecked.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Pottsville, Pa., March 5.—By an explosion of powder at the Richard Colliery at Mount Carmel today the blacksmith shop, boiler-house, and a large powder magazine were blown up. About thirty persons were injured, several probably fatally. The business street of Mount Carmel was badly damaged, and window-panes broken for a distance of fifteen miles from the explosion.

WAGNER'S RECALL TO THE STAND TODAY

May Mean Jerome Is Trying to Convince Jury of Thaw's Insanity.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, March 5.—Dr. Wagner was recalled when the Thaw trial opened this morning and his cross-examination was resumed by Jerome.

District Attorney Jerome and Justice Fitzgerald had a clash during the Thaw case today. Judge Fitzgerald asked if the jury had been impaneled in this case to try anything except the issue that the defendant was insane the night he shot and killed White. Jerome said he would not reply to a proposition so elemental. He also refused point blank to submit any authorities on the subject, saying his respect for the courts was too high would not presume to submit authorities on a question so elemental. "If you do not submit authorities," said Justice Fitzgerald, "I will assume you do not know of any." Judge Fitzgerald was entirely sustained by the defense that Jerome's question to Wagner was too broad. In the midst of the discussion as to admissibility of certain evidence Jerome said the presumption before the court is that Thaw is insane now, nothing having been adduced to show insane state has not continued.

Photographers Meet in Denver.
Denver, Colo., March 5.—Leading photographers of two states, comprising the membership of the Colorado-Wyoming Photographers' Association, gathered in this city today in annual convention. A large attendance and an excellent program combine to give promise of a highly successful meeting. The three days' sessions are to be given over to papers and discussions treating of the latest developments and most improved methods in the art of photography. A large exhibition of art photographs and materials is being held in connection with the meeting.

NEW YORK CENTRAL TRAIN WRECKED

Eastbound Fast Train Runs into Signal Tower at Briartown, Near Poughkeepsie.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 5.—A limited fast mail, eastbound, on the New York Central, was wrecked near Briartown at six o'clock this morning. Four sleepers and a dining car were derailed at an interlocking switch and crashed into the signal tower. No one was killed, but nine persons were injured, receiving cuts and bruises.

CONGRESSMEN TO GO ON PANAMA JUNKET

Fifty Members of Senate and House With a Number of Guests Will Sail Tomorrow.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., March 5.—It seems to be quite the proper thing nowadays for every one in public life, from the resident down through an interminable list of officeholders, to run down to Panama on a little jaunt just to see if the work on the isthmian canal is progressing satisfactorily. If there is any one in Washington who has not received an invitation to one of these official junkets it must have been through an oversight. Not only have a legion of public officials already taken the trip or are preparing for it, but members of their families and numerous friends have shared in the pleasures of the excursions at Uncle Sam's expense. The latest party to make the trip is scheduled to sail from New York tomorrow on the steamer Alliance. It will be made up of about fifty members of the senate and house, with a number of guests. The party will be gone about a month and probably will touch at several of the West Indian ports en route. During their stay in the canal zone the congressmen intend to make a thorough inspection of conditions there with a view to being better prepared to deal with any measures that may come before them in the future in relation to the construction of the canal.

GREENE AND GAYNOR APPEAL WAS CALLED

Year Since Conviction Has Been Spent in Bibb County Jail at Macon, Georgia.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
New Orleans, La., March 5.—The appeal of Benjamin D. Greene and John F. Gaynor, the wealthy New York contractors convicted of defrauding the government in connection with the Savannah harbor improvement work, was called for a hearing today before the circuit court of appeals in this city. Since their conviction at Savannah more than a year ago Greene and Gaynor have been prisoners in the Bibb county jail at Macon, Ga., awaiting the result of their appeal for a new trial in the famous case.

ARCHIE ROOSEVELT BETTER

Dr. Rixey Says His Condition Is Not at All Serious.

Washington, March 5.—Dr. Rixey visited the White House, Monday night and as he was leaving said: "Archie Roosevelt is getting along nicely. His condition is not serious and there is no reason for alarm. The other children have been isolated as a precautionary measure, and I do not believe there is the slightest danger of them contracting the disease."

Dr. Lambert returned to New York Monday night. The sailors of the president's yacht, Sylph, sent Archie a bunch of violets. Mrs. Roosevelt remains almost constantly at her son's bedside and all social engagements at the White House have been canceled.

BROWN DAMAGE CASE IS ON TRIAL TODAY

And Jury and Court Are Surveying Premises—Jury Deliberating on Pen. Co. Action.

In circuit court this morning the trial of the action brought by William M. Hicks et al. of New York City against the Parker Pen Co. of Janesville to recover some $300 for gold pens which the defendant claims proved to be unsatisfactory after they were fitted into the barrels and placed on the market, was continued. The defendant offered to settle on the basis of $33.42 and interest but has refused to pay the balance demanded. Shortly before two o'clock this afternoon the arguments were concluded, by M. P. Richardson, representing the plaintiff, and W. H. Dougherty, representing the defense, and Judge Grimm charged the jury. At 3:15 the twelve had not agreed upon a verdict. Immediately thereafter the following twelve were drawn to try the $1,000 damage action brought against the city of Janesville by John Brown to recover damage to crops on his 20 acre tract on Magnolia avenue, caused by the storm of August 8. The jurors selected were: Jacob Smiley, Andrew Shirley, O. P. Gaarder, H. W. Parker, Frank Story, George Campbell, Watson Aldrich, James Sweeney, R. D. McMillan, Herbert Moseley, Henry McManara, and Edward Baumann. Alderman Merritt and Sheridan, former Alderman Grove, Street Commissioner Sennett, Assistant Street Commissioner McKine, City Engineer Kerch, and others are among the witnesses subpoenaed. Immediately after the twelve who are to try the case were chosen, Judge Grimm, the attorneys, and the jury departed in a carryall for the scene of destruction. Alderman Sheridan was not allowed to provide the rig as the city is to pay for it. City Attorney Maxfield represents the defendant and F. C. Burpee the plaintiff.

HONDURAS ARMIES FIGHTING

GRACIANAS, FAMOUS FIGHTING INDIANS, UNDER ARMS.

Nicaraguan Ambuscade Is Foiled—Gen. Lee Christmas, of Tennessee, Leading Bonilla's Troops.

New Orleans, March 5.—The following dispatches covering recent fighting between Honduras and Nicaragua were received here Monday via steamship from Puerto Cortez, Honduras:
San Marcos, (Honduran frontier), Feb. 20.—Nicaraguan troops set an ambuscade on Honduras territory near the frontier, but were driven out by the Honduran forces. Nicaraguan loss, 14 killed, 40 wounded; Honduras, two wounded.
Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Feb. 24.—Gen. Lee Christmas (an American formerly living in Memphis, Tenn.), and Gen. Barahona, with 2,000 men marched for the frontier of Nicaragua today. Thirty-five hundred soldiers have arrived at the capital from the western department of Gracias Intero and Copan and are being uniformed and equipped. These soldiers are the famous fighting Indians called "Gracianas," men of great valor and endurance, who remember the sacking of Choluteca by Nicaraguan troops in 1894 and are enthusiastic for war. When this force arrives Honduras will have on the border between 15,000 and 18,000 troops. A reserve of 15,000 will be rapidly organized, the entire fighting force of the country being called on.
Tegucigalpa, Feb. 26.—The column of Gen. Barahona and Christmas have arrived at Guinope, within four leagues of the Nicaraguan frontier. No engagement of importance has occurred within the past few days, only skirmishes being fought. On account of the close proximity of both armies encounters are looked for daily.

GOVERNOR IS ACCUSED

Charges Against New Mexico Executive to Be Investigated.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 5.—The house Monday passed a resolution to investigate the conduct of Gov. Herbert H. Hagerman in regard to the alleged fraudulent acquisition of 7,000 acres of timber lands in the Manzanito mountains by the Pennsylvania Development company, said to have been connected with the Enterprise bank failure at Pittsburg, Pa.

The charge is that the governor, without the knowledge and consent of the commissioner of public lands, delivered to the general manager of the Pennsylvania company, the deed for the land, that he took the seal of the commissioner and unlawfully affixed it to the deed, that the land is worth from $25 to $100 an acre but was sold at only three dollars an acre; that the federal law at the time forbade the selling of more than 160 acres to any one purchaser, and that therefore the territorial institutions to whom these lands belonged were defrauded to that extent.

Montana's Anti-Gambling Bill.
Helena, Mont., March 5.—The house Monday concurred in the senate amendment to the Griffin anti-gambling bill and it now goes to the governor for his approval or veto. The bill includes every known form of gambling with cards or other devices, and the amendment, referred to includes bucketshops, brokerage and the like.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Green Bay, Wis., March 5.—Police Captain William E. Finnegan, against whom Mayor McMahon preferred charges, was exonerated from all but one. On Monday night Finnegan was reinstated, but was later suspended for sixty days. The only charge sustained was being drunk in September of 1904.

OLDEST RESIDENT OF CITY DEAD IN HUNDRETH YEAR

Mrs. Helen Edgar Passed Away at Home of Daughter, Mrs. J. G. Wray, Shortly Before Noon.

Mrs. Helen Edgar, the most aged resident of Janesville, died at 11:30 o'clock this morning after an illness of seven weeks' duration. Her demise occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Wray, 47 Milwaukee avenue, where the latter years of her long life had been made pleasant. During Mrs. Edgar's final sickness she suffered much and patiently longed to go to the life beyond.

Mrs. Edgar passed her ninety-ninth milestone last autumn, having been born November 23, 1807. Her maiden name was Helen Sim and her native home was Middleburg, Scotland. At the age of twenty-two, she became the wife of William Edgar and seven children, four of whom survive, were born to them. In 1859 the family came to America and three years were spent in Brooklyn. They returned to Scotland and resided at their old home for ten years. Coming to the new world again in 1872 they started almost immediately for Janesville, and a few months thereafter settled on a farm, three miles north. Mr. Edgar served in the Union army during the civil war, and his death came in 1905 as a result of sickness contracted in one of the campaigns. Mrs. Edgar removed to Janesville and had since lived with Mrs. Wray. The deceased was a stalwart member of the Methodist Episcopal church, which organization she joined at the age of seventeen.

RE-NUMBERING AN
IMPERATIVE DUTY

WHOLE CITY IN STATE OF HOPE.
LESS CONFUSION.

SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

Was Held Last Evening—Several Matters of Interest Brought to Attention of City Fathers.

Alderman E. T. Fish and E. H.
Connell and City Engineer C. V.
Kerch, composing the special committee appointed to investigate plans for re-numbering the city, reported to the city council last evening. They found a lack of system and great confusion prevailing, due largely to the fact that there was in existence no plan showing any definite plan of procedure. In some instances a scheme of numbering every lot with a frontage of four rods and been followed and under this system half-numbers had been used where lots were subdivided. Here and there odd and even numbers had been placed indiscrimi-nately on the same sides of streets, and frequently on parallel thoroughfares the arbitrary method of numbering from east to west, for instance, on one had been directly reversed on the other. Any new system, should make proper provisions for the growth of the city, allowing a number for at least 22 feet of frontage. This would mean a complete re-adjustment, except in the business district, and in the latter less than 20 per cent of the stores possessed the needful designations at the present time. While there might be some question as to the advisability of making any such contract with the American Sign Co., as had been suggested, the need of doing something along this line was imperative. The Philadelphia plan of 100 numbers to the block was suggested. On motion the report was adopted. It is probable that if any further steps are taken they will be along the line of having all the work, save that of actually putting up the numbers, done in the city engineer's office.

City Marshal's Report.
City Marshal Apple's report for February chronicled 67 arrests, 12 of which were for violation of city ordinances, 5 for larceny, 2 for assault and battery, and 48 for drunkenness.
Of the parties arrested 34 were taken to court and 33 discharged. $15.70 in city marshal's fees had been turned over to the city treasurer. Arrests were credited to the officers as follows: Appleby, 17; Brown, 12; Bear, 6; Beneke, 6; Champion, 7; Morrissey, 7; Panning, 6; Mason, 7. The municipal court report for the same month showed that 25 actions had been tried, ten for drunkenness, that cost fees amounting to $35, fines amounting to $22, penalties amounting to $185, and city marshal fees amounting to $15.70 had been collected; that $245.35 had been turned over to the city treasurer, and $25.36 (two-thirds of the court fees) to the county treasurer. On motion the quarterly report of the chief engineer was received and placed on file.

Sewer Report Held Over.
The street assessment committee made recommendations regarding the sewers to be constructed in 1907 and the committee to which the report was referred, through Alderman Brookhaus, asked for and was granted further time for the consideration of the plans. At a previous meeting a special committee consisting of Aldermen Connell and Dulin and Health Commissioner W. D. Merritt was authorized to purchase a steel-lined garbage wagon. This committee reported that a contract had been made with the Austin Mfg. Co. for a vehicle costing $110 and that the same would be shipped here in a few days.

The report was adopted. Alderman Buchholz voting "No."

More Time For Field Petition.
J. S. Pifford, of Pifford Bros., submitted a communication in which he stated that the fire ordinance had been inadvertently violated by the construction of a small frame addition, 7 feet wide and 10 feet high, to one of the storage buildings in the lumber yard and prayed that special permission might be given the firm to allow the same to stand. The petition was referred to the fire and water committee, Chairman Meritt, which, after consultation, asked for and was granted further time for the consideration of the matter.

Orders Passed.
The council passed an order stipu-lating that the city engineer lay out the east side of North Bluff street between Pease's Court and Fourth Ave. be established in practically its present location, the inner margin to be located 2.6 feet from the property line on the northerly side of Pease's Court, and running thence in a straight line to a point in the southerly line of Fourth
Ave. five feet from the property line.
The street commissioner was instructed to lay a brick crosswalk across S.
Second street on the west side of East St., rebuild the gutter at the same place, repair the culvert at the corner of Oakland Ave. and S. Main street, place open gutters on N. Franklin St.
on the north side of N. Bluff, and across Ravine street on the east side of Terrace. The city clerk was instructed to purchase a carload of brick—and 5 tons of pea coal for the city hall.

Miscellaneous Business.
The customary report on bills was submitted by the finance committee.
Mayor Hutchinson's appointments of John Benson and John Dalton as special police officers without pay from
Feb. 26 to May 25, were confirmed.
Alderman Brookhaus stated that a sample of the proposed aldermanic badges had not yet been received—they could be bought at prices ranging from $1 to $60. "Buy the $60 ones!" interposed Ald. Fish. He thought pretty fair stars could be had for $3.50 apiece. Ald. Fish went to know whether they would belong to the individual alderman and could be taken home for keepsakes. Mayor Hutchinson said that he was unprepared to pass on the question. All the members were present at the session save Alderman Hager.

THIRTEEN ALARMS OF FIRE THUS FAR

$1,500 Feet of Hose Besmeared With Paint at Machine Co. Blaze and Damage May Be Large.

Chief Klein of the fire department submitted his report to the city council last evening. The full text was as follows:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville:

Gentlemen—Complying with the charter provisions I herewith submit my quarterly report, as Chief Engineer of the Fire Department.

Since the first day of January the department has responded to thirteen alarms of fire. With the exception of the fire at the Janesville Machine Company, on the 6th day of February, the losses incurred have been small.
What the loss was at the Machine Co.
I have not as yet learned; but I am sanguine the loss will not be as large as it was first reported. At this fire the department was considerably handicapped and did not get to work with its usual promptness, on account of two of our hook wagons being in the paint shop, and the substitute wagons not being adapted to our service.
Furthermore, the team that hauls our hook and ladder apparatus was at that time taking their usual daily exercise, and on that account, it caused a slight delay in getting our ladders. However, all things considered we were very fortunate in that the loss was not large.

The horses of the department are in good serviceable condition, with the exception of the old grays used on the hook and ladder wagon, and acting under orders of the common council I have offered the same for sale, but not as yet have I been able to dispose of the same. One new horse was purchased for use on the ladder truck, which up to this time is all I have been able to find. To find horses suitable for this service is a very hard matter.

At this time all of our wagons are being vanished and in other ways put in first class shape. This is something that has long been needed.

In fighting the fire at the Janesville Machine Co., about 1500 feet of first class hose became besmeared with paint, if this paint has penetrated through the rubber lining, the hose will be rendered useless, and it will mean a very costly replacement.
However, nothing but time can tell what the outcome will be.

At this time I beg leave to report that after three long years of persistent efforts, I have finally succeeded in getting compliance with the state law relative to fire escapes in all cases, where needed; or where orders were given to erect the same. My efforts would have been in vain without the district attorney who assisted me on request, and to whom and in this manner I desire to give my hearty thanks, for the able assistance rendered.

I desire at this time to report that about ten days ago I filed a complaint in the municipal court against one of our prominent citizens for a violation of the building ordinance. But as yet there has been any result from the same. Respectfully submitted,
H. C. KLEIN,
Chief Engineer.

No Tidal Waves on Great Lakes.
There are no real tidal waves on the great lakes. Occasionally waves of astonishing height roll in upon the shore, where there is no storm, but such phenomena are not in any sense tides. They are the result of great atmospheric pressure, far from the places where they are observed, or of distant tempests.

EVANSVILLE IS NOW
ASSURED Y. M. C. A.

Active Steps Toward Establishment Taken at Rally Meetings Sunday—Cutoff City News.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Evansville, March 4.—The Y. M. C. A.
meetings held in this city Sunday evening were largely attended and were of unusual interest to our people. The men's mass-meetings at the First Baptist church at 8 p. m. called out a large number of men and State Secretary Anderson assisted by the Y. M. C. A. quartette had charge of the services.
Dr. Richards, of Janesville, led the Young People's meeting at 9:30 in the M. E. church. At 7:30 the opera-house was packed, and—Assistant State Secretary Puffer gave a complete history of the work already done by the Y. M. C. A. and Mr. Kline of Janesville told of the work yet to be accomplished by that organization.
Mr. Brown gave a talk on the Bible study classes for the Y. M. C. A.
State Secretary Anderson closed the meetings with a short talk. Our people were much pleased with the music by the quartette. At the present writing about four or five hundred dollars have been contributed to carry on this good work. Secretary Anderson stated over Monday to help plan the gymnasium and reading room.

The sad intelligence of the sudden death of Haven Marsh, now of Washington, has just been received by friends in this city. Mr. Marsh was graduated with the highest honors from the seminary in 1905. Mr.
Marsh was a favorite with all, was a young man of sterling worth and more than ordinary ability. There are many here who mourn because of his untimely death.

The Woman's Literary club met at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J.
M. Evans Monday evening. For some months the ladies of this society have devoted much time to the study of Shakespeare and Prof. A.
H. S. of the highest rank was invited to address the club. Mr. Soltz in his usually pleasing and brilliant manner gave a very instructive talk which was greatly appreciated by those in attendance.

The public are cordially invited to attend the next meeting of the Phoenix Literary society of the seminary to be given Thursday evening, March 7, in their chapel. An interesting program has been prepared which is as follows: Devotional exercises, chaplain; reading, W. G.
Guehr; music, quartette; essay—"Edison," E. Brandner; literary paper, C.
Wiggins; recitation, Miss Coleman; play solo, Miss Pamley; stump speech, H. Gillette; declamation, Miss Miles; duet, Misses Thomas and Nelson.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. A. Eger Thursday afternoon, March 7, at 2:30 o'clock. A good program has been arranged and all are most cordially invited to be present.

Rev. E. A. Ralph and Rev. R. Harlan went to Edgerton Monday to attend an evangelistic conference and to hear the noted evangelist, Dr.
Dawson, who is holding special meetings in that city.

A prohibition club has just been organized at the seminary with thirty-five active members and gave their first program last Thursday evening.
Rev. T. W. North will give a short address at the next meeting.

Mr. Chas. Truesdell, secretary of the Prohibition League, spoke to the seminary students Monday morning.

The St. Paul's Roman Catholic society held their first services in their new church Sunday, March 4.

A. C. Gray recently purchased and took possession on March 1 of a highly improved stock farm in the town of Oregon, Dane county.

Mrs. Vincent McMullen went to Dodgeville Monday and will spend the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins.

Mr. Fred Winston went to Johnstown Saturday and will be the guest of relatives there for a few days.

Miss Ava Prantz is confined to the house with her children.

Mrs. Ellen Erdman returned from Beloit Saturday, where she has been spending a portion of the winter with her children.

August Freuchen has bought Earnest Clifford's house and will move into it this week and Mr. Clifford will move into the house vacated by Mr. Freuchen.

E. M. Dorr, a former resident of this place but who for some time has lived in Canada, is transacting business in the city this week.

Mrs. Geo. Magee is taking treatment of an eye specialist in Madison two weeks.

Miss Hemmings was a Sunday
guest of Miss Grace Fessenden.

Mrs. W. Briggs spent Saturday in Janesville.

Dan S. Hulbert has just invested in some choice residence property in Chicago.

Mrs. Bert Baker and Mrs. Cal
Broughton visited in Janesville Saturday.

Miss Lena Rye of Johnson is a guest of relatives in the city this week.

Leslie Reckord came up from Be-loft Saturday evening to visit over Sunday with his parents.

Mr. Dillree's folks are preparing to move to Washington.

Mrs. Henry Monshaw is reported quite sick.

Mrs. E. J. Reckord was a guest of friends in Janesville Saturday.

NEW SUIT FOR 5c.

Any smoker can get suited for 5c by going to Peoples' Drug Co.'s drug store and buying a "Wadsworth Bros."
"Chico."

This cigar is not a stogy, a cheroot, or a Porto Rican imitation cigar, but a well made, good size, clear long Havana filler that tastes like tobacco from the first puff right to the end. It smokes free, with a real Carolina perfecto fragrance, and burns with a solid ash that shows how good a cigar it is.

The "Chico" is warranted to suit any smoker, no matter whether he has been paying 5c, 10c or a higher price.
At any rate it is well worth trying,
and druggists' People's Drug Co. want all their smoker friends to get the "Chico" habit.

Wadsworth Bros. "Chicos" are also on sale at King's Pharmacy.

SMOKER TENDERED
OSCAR GUETTLE

Former Secretary and Recent Acting Superintendent of Sash & Door
Co. Who Goes to Milwaukee.

About twenty friends of Oscar E.
Guettler, who has been acting superintendent of the Janesville Sash & Door Co. plant and who has the high esteem of all his associates during his residence in Janesville, tendered him a farewell smoker at the Bricklayers' hall on North River street last evening. A tempting luncheon was served and after a musical program the guest of honor was presented with a fine fountain pen. Mr.
Guettler leaves for Milwaukee tomorrow morning. The machinery at the sash and door plant has been stopped but the cabinet-makers are still at work.

IN BEHALF OF THE POOR AND NEEDY

Associated Charities Organization is Continuing Good Work—Meeting Yesterday.

The meeting of the Associated Charities held yesterday afternoon at the Park Pharmacy was the best attended for a long time. February was a hard month for many of the poor and more money and clothing was given out than in any preceding month. Quite a number of applicants were present at the meeting and one case where the family was practically without anything was unusually distressing. This morning the house is being cleaned, a good fire has been built, beds and bedding installed, and there is another happy family in Janesville. The officers of the Associated Charities had furnished the house in a remarkably short time.
There are pressing calls for underwear, children's clothing and bedding.
Any contribution will be gladly received and distributed where it will do good. Send all goods to Heimstreet's Drug store or telephone No.
340.

THREE RELATIVES KILLED ON RAILS

Strange Fatality Follows James Quinn,
a Former Janesville Printer—Tragedy in Madison Sunday.

Within the past few months James Quinn, employed until his removal to Madison several weeks ago, as a printer in the Gazette office, has lost three relatives in railroad accidents. During his residence here, a brother,
Charles Quinn, was killed at Chippewa Falls by a train's sideswiping the caboose in which he was a passenger, and at the capital city on Sunday two pieces were killed by a switch engine on the tracks skirting the north shore of Lake Monona. The young girls were cousins. Catherine Maria Quinn, age fifteen years, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Quinn, and Catherine Margaret Quinn, age sixteen, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn. The girls, walking arm in arm along the tracks, turned out from an outgoing C. & N. W. train

William Booth

Gen. William Booth, the head of the Salvation Army, was born at Nottingham, England, in 1829. He was always a studious and religious boy and early turned his thoughts toward the ministry. He made a good impression by his speeches and was admitted as a member of the ministry of the Methodist New Connection, an English sect of the Methodist church, in 1852. He was given missionary work to do in the East End of London, where he became deeply interested in the terrible conditions which he found, and in 1855 began the special work which has since been extended all over the civilized world under the name of the Salvation Army. He has been the founder of many farm colonies, to which he shipped broken down men and women with splendid results. Mr. George Horning, a wealthy Englishman, gave General Booth $500,000 with which to start this kind of charitable work.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, March 5, 1867.—A bill has passed the legislature and been approved by the Governor, incorporating the village of Evansville.

Rejected.—Rev. J. Thomas Ruger, whose name was sent to the Senate on Saturday, as candidate for the office of postmaster of this city, was rejected on yesterday.

Thrift in Shopkeepers.—Some rascals entered the Post Office last week, at Shopkeepers, and took therefrom $12 to $14 worth of stamps, while the Postmaster was at dinner in the adjoining room.

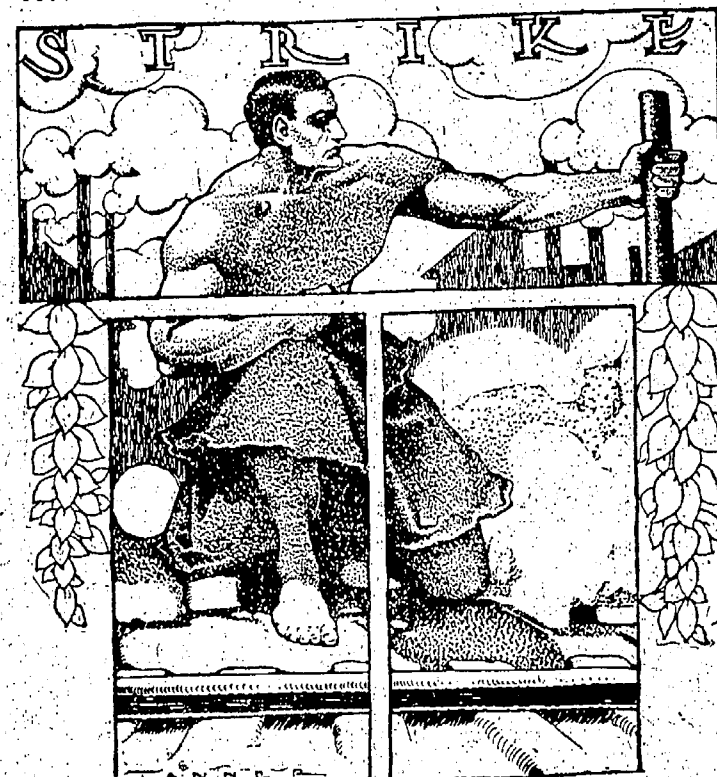

But a few nights ago some one entered the house of Wm. Schenck and took his pocket book from his pants, containing $125.

Common Council.—At the Common Council meeting last evening the action of the Council at their last meeting in reference to amending the city charter was reconsidered on the motion of Mr. Shelton. After considerable wrangling among the various members he introduced the following order, and it was passed: Ordered, That Mr. Norcross, the member from this city, be and is hereby requested to amend the bill sent to him by Mr. Winans, amending the City Charter, now pending in the legislature, by striking out of the same, all power to build, construct and purchase water power, water wheels, force pumps, hydrants and to lay pipes on the streets of this city, given in section one thereof, and after so amending the same he urge its speedy passage.

Alderman Conrad moved to amend the bill further by striking out everything in relation to bridges.

The Chair ruled the motion out of order.

Alderman Shelton appealed from the decision of the Chair. The vote being taken on the question, the Chair was sustained by a vote of five to one.

March 5, 1886.—Twenty-one years ago today the Knights of Labor struck on the Gould Southwestern Railway system. Find a striker.

THE NEWS BOILED DOWN.

RAILWAY OFFICERS HELD.

President and Directors of New York Central Under Parole.

New York, March 5.—The jury in the coroner's inquest into the New York Central wreck in the Bronx on February 16, when 23 persons were killed, brought in a verdict Monday night holding the operating and construction departments of the railroad responsible.

The coroner endeavored to get a recommendation as to individuals, but did not succeed. He then declared he would hold the entire board of directors and the president of the Central, and parole them until ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

TWO MEN HOLD UP A TRAIN

ROBBERY BY DISGUISED BANDITS ON MISSOURI PACIFIC.

Negro Miner Shoots at Them and Is Killed—Plunder Secured from Passengers Is Small.

Pittsburg, Kan., March 5.—A Missouri Pacific passenger train, which left here at 7:20 Monday evening, was held up by two men in disguise, and Lou Jeff, a colored miner employed at Camp 31 of the Central Coal & Coke company, was killed because he resisted and W. L. Westlake of Toledo, O., who with his wife and two children had been visiting relatives in Kansas, was shot through the hand by a stray shot that had been fired at the negro.

There were few passengers on the train, and the robbers secured only a little over $100 in cash and a few watches and revolvers.

The men were disguised with false mustaches and goatees. They boarded the train here at the station and began robbing the passengers as the train passed the Kansas City Southern shops. They commenced at the smoking car, and one walked ahead with a big 44-caliber revolver in each hand and quietly asked the passengers to "shell out" to the man behind.

They were not far behind the train auditor, and followed him into the ladies' coach. When they came to Jeff he drew a revolver, and shot at the foremost robber, who shot twice at him. The first shot went wild and struck Westlake, but the second struck the negro in the head and killed him instantly.

They then quietly made the auditor stand and deliver, and left the train as it entered the yards at Cornell.

As soon as communication could be had with Agent Donahy, of this place, a switch engine, with a posse of officers was sent to Cornell, which is only four miles from here.

The country surrounding Pittsburg is thickly settled, and is dotted with scores of villages and mining camps.

It is reported that the news that a miner was killed by the bandits has spread rapidly and that the miners are aroused and will make an attempt to capture and lynch the men.

VERMONT IS IN COMMISSION.

New Battleship Turned Over to Its Officers and Crew.

Boston, March 5.—The new United States battleship Vermont was formally placed in commission at the Charlestown navy yard Monday with Lieut. Commander C. Bertelette, the executive officer, in acting command. Capt. William P. Potter, who will command the Vermont, has not yet reached the yard.

Gen. Booth Reaches New York.

New York, March 5.—Shortly before seven o'clock Monday night, the Atlantic Transport liner Minneapolis, with the venerable head of the Salvation Army, Gen. William Booth, on board, was sighted off Fire Island. The ship was some hours late and did not reach quarantine until late in the night, anchoring there until Tuesday.

Army Officers Plead Guilty.

Omaha, Neb., March 5.—Pleas of guilty by both men brought the court-martial trials of Capt. Ralph R. Stogs-dall and Second Lieut. A. L. Clark of the Thirtieth Infantry to an abrupt termination at Fort Crook Monday afternoon. The charges were insubordination.

Safe Blowers Get Seven Cents.

Wilburton, I. T., March 5.—The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad station was blown to pieces Monday night when robbers dynamited the safe. They secured only seven cents, the agent having taken a large sum of money home with him for safe keeping.

Suicide in Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., March 5.—C. M. Mitchell, who was traveling for a publishing house at Marshalltown, Ia., shot and killed himself Monday evening in a crowded waiting room in the heart of the city.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Wednesday, colder tonight with cold wave in northern portion.

TRIBUTE TO SPOONER

Editors east and west are paying tribute to Senator John C. Spooner's greatness as a man and a statesman. The leading newspapers of the country are united in the opinion that the United States has lost the service of a man who will be sadly missed when matters of national importance are subject of discussion. It has even been suggested by some that Senator Spooner may be induced to enter the cabinet after several years spent in legal practice. It is suggested that as secretary of state or attorney general his peer would be hard to find. (Stepping down as he does at the zenith of his glory, Mr. Spooner leaves behind him a record which honors himself, the state he represented and the voters who elected him.

FIELD IS CLOSED

The field is now closed to candidates for city office. Thus far the democrats have not demonstrated any desire to cross horns with the republicans as to Mayor, but it is probable that some candidate will receive enough votes to nominate him, should he desire to run on primary day. In the first ward there is no contest for alderman. In the second the republicans have one candidate in the field and the democrats two. In the third there are three candidates for the long term and one for the short term, all republicans. In the fourth two candidates appear for this office, a democrat and a republican, seeking aldermanic honors. In the fifth no republican has dared show his head, but two democrats are fighting it out. Two candidates for city clerk on the republican ticket with no democrat mentioned and for justice, of the peace on republican for the two-year term and a republican and democrat for the short term are in the field. The only democrat seeking a city office is the sealer of weights and measures. Taking it all in all, except for some ward fights and the battle for the republican nomination for Mayor, primary day promises to be very tame. It is easy for heavy taxpayers to criticize the work of a Mayor or council, but it appears to be like pulling teeth to bring out candidates for the different offices.

BURY THE GRAFT

After Benedict Arnold had done valiant service for his country, and received a severe wound in his leg, he went over to the enemy who rewarded him by making him a general in the British army. While acting in that capacity he captured one of his former soldiers in the American army, and calling him before him, inquired: "What would they do with me if George Washington captured me?" "Well," replied the undaunted soldier, "they would probably amputate your leg and bury it with all the honors of war, and hang the rest of you for treason." Turn this story around, and apply it to the railroads of the United States. Let us amputate the graft, the rakeoff, the dual transaction, the rebate and discrimination, the bribery and the speculation, and bury them all in a dishonored grave; and then encourage the great body of enterprise, executive ability, engineering and operating skill in their splendid work of developing the resources of the country. About the most foolish thing we could do would be to penalize the constructive capacity of railroad men because of the wrong committed in railroad finance.

THE FUN BEGINS

Scarcely was the news of Senator Spooner's resignation heralded throughout the country before candidates for his position sprang up like mushrooms after a spring shower. Congressmen, former officeholders, governors, ex-governors, state senators, all sprang into prominence as possibilities for the office of United States Senator. Then, came the dispute as to when the legislature could act upon the question. Legal lights serving their state at so much per opinion differed. Some said in May, after the office became vacant; some said at once, and as yet, no definite opinion has been given. Meanwhile, the candidates and their friends are making ready for the campaign. Esch, Jenkins and Cooper are said to be hurrying from Washington, Stephenson from Marinette can direct his followers, Senator Hatten in a Chicago hotel is being implored to return, and announce his plans. Lt. Governor Connor is reticent, Governor Davidson has closed his square jaws on all talk. Former Secretary of State House says he will not be a candidate. Mr. Lenroot is waiting for word from Washington with anxiety and the legislators in general are as busy as bees in a clover field discussing the situation. The fun has begun. The merry, merry contest will go on. Plans will be laid and will miscarry. New lines of defense will be created only to be beaten down and while this is going on the real work of the legislature, the making of laws, will be sacrificed or hurried over and slighted. The real alignment has not come. It will develop in a few days, but at present it is everybody's battle with honors thus far even.

CONGRESS CLOSES

The Billion-Dollar Congress has closed and now the country is waiting to see if the next congress is going to begin its work where the present left off or will seek new fields to conquer. Among the notable measures that meet defeat or were laid over for future consideration was the Ship Subsidy Bill and the Philippine Bill. Both practically died in the Senate after having passed by the House. That both will have new life when the next congress convenes is certain and their fate then will be determined by the complexion of the members which can not as yet be certainly fixed. Speaker Cannon has yielded his baton of office with the usual precision and while some of his pet measures have gone down in defeat he has carried his views through in the majority of cases. The Fifty-Ninth Congress has adjourned sine die and the country is safe until the Sixtieth convenes next December.

Russia still wonders whether the donna was a success or not. It certainly was a good advertising medium at any rate. It may not increase the population of Russia, but it has started lots of lecturers on the way to riches.

The actress that a Duchess of the Royal house of Austria caught with her husband and shot is now in Chicago and doubtless Chicago society will go crazy over her.

Chicago has the Busy Busse Boosters and other political organizations that promise to make things hum this spring while the gambler gambles until election day.

Remember that there is no splitting of tickets at the primary election. You must vote either the republican or the democratic tickets.

Janesville has quietly settled down until the 19th, when the primaries will decide the fate of aspiring candidates for office.

The second and the fifth wards will be the battlegrounds of public opinion on the aldermanic question.

Jerome does not appear to be making the headway he desired in his Thaw trial, but there are still hopes.

Harriman did one good thing anyway. He took the minds of some of the readers off the Thaw trial.

Harriman and his testimony may yet figure in some court of record to Mr. Harriman's displeasure.

Mrs. Mike MacDonald appears to have been quite a girl after all.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

The Ohio delegation in the next congress will have ten members under 40 years of age, and one of them, J. Eugene Harding of Middletown, is but 29, and will be the youngest member of the house.

Big Chief Pleasant Porter, ruler of 10,000 Creek Indians, may be one of the democratic candidates for the United States senate from the new state of Oklahoma. Like Senator Curtis of Kansas, Porter's father was a white man and his mother a squaw.

Louis L. Williams of Juneau, Alaska, has just been appointed a member of the democratic national committee from that territory to succeed the late A. K. Delany.

Congressman Richard Bartholdt of Missouri is one of the few men who already have bronze tablets erected to their memory. The house in which Mr. Bartholdt was born in Germany is marked with a tablet showing the interesting events in his life, together with a statement to the effect that he went to Missouri and there became famous.

Four active candidates, with a fifth in the background, are contesting for the seat recently made vacant by the death of Representative John P. Rixey of the Eighth congressional district of Virginia. The fight promises to be an intensely interesting one from the start.

Some of the democratic leaders in Indiana are said to bitterly resent the attitude of Thomas Taggart, the national democratic chairman, toward temperance legislation at the present session of the Indiana legislature. Mr. Taggart, it is charged, has aided the brewers and other liquor interests with his influence to defeat the various measures advocated by the anti-saloon and temperance element.

PRESS COMMENT.

Senator Spooner Decides Wisely.
Milwaukee Journal: Senator Spooner is to be congratulated upon his resignation from the senate. It is one of the wisest things he has ever done. He has taken just the right moment to give up public life. He steps down from high office not only with dignity and honor, but with prestige undimmed by the outcome of the political struggle over the senatorship which loomed big before him. Senator Spooner may not have felt it to be true, but it is certain, that a fight would have been made against his reelection high, regardless of the outcome, would have been deeply humiliating to him and which could only have detracted from the glory he has won from his long service in the senate. Conditions have changed greatly in Wisconsin since Mr. Spooner's last election to the senate and these changes would have shown themselves in the senatorial campaign. Mr. Spooner would have been amazed at the changed views of even his stalwart friends when he came to understand thoroughly their position. He was not in touch with the prevailing thought of the state. And so he has done well to resign at a time when his prestige was the highest throughout the nation.

Without Reproach.

Milwaukee News: Senator John C. Spooner has resigned the office of senator that he may return to the practice of the legal profession and earn a competence for his old age. That he chosen, Mr. Spooner must have remained in public life to the end of his days. But Mr. Spooner has felt that he owes a duty to himself and to his family as well as to the state. He has rendered distinguished service to the public, in which have passed many of the best years of his life, and now he feels that without sacrifice of public interest or shirking of obligation to the state he may retire to private life.

No Nine-spot Wanted.

Evening Wisconsin: The duty of choosing a United States senator which devolves upon the members of the present Legislature of Wisconsin is one for which the majority of them were not especially elected. Their responsibility is the greater on that account. The senatorship is a large office and should be filled by a large man. Wisconsin has not been in the habit of sending nine-spots to represent its interests in the highest council in the nation.

The Cheek of the Man!

Monroe Journal: Walter L. Houser, while secretary of state, issued a roster of former soldiers and sailors' rights in Wisconsin that is being severely criticized for its inaccuracy and omissions. And this is the man who has this and many other questionable acts laid up against him, that aspires to Senator Spooner's position. Don't it jar you?

$173,000 Crazy Man.

Chicago News: Now we care, told that a crazy man took the money. Going crazy is getting to be a terrible habit. Doubtless the pickpocket when nabbed in the act by a policeman will soon get wise enough to remonstrate with the officer in this wise: "Stay your restraining hand, good sir, can't you see that I am crazy?"

Work, the Highest Attribute.

Jefferson County Union: To work for a living, work hard, but work with brain and skill, is the highest attribute of manhood and womanhood. To dawdle at something easy and genteel is a sure sign of a draft, weak mind and spirit. Every resolute, worthy young man and woman should shun this idea of gentility in their work as they would the plague.

Discourages Innovation.

Kenosha News: That plan to reverse the address on all mail matter, putting the state first, looks like a good one and one that would be of great assistance to the mail clerks, but habit is so strong that it would take some time and much printers' ink to put it in general use.

House's Proposed Tour.

Stoughton Hub: When Walter Houser makes his tour of the farmers of the state in his house-to-house canvass for the United States senatorship he ought to take somebody along to identify himself. Host would be a good man.

Back to the Quill!

Milwaukee Journal: Chas. Jagersoll will devote himself to his newspaper. So will "Jim" Monahan and "Tom" Reid. With these men free at the bellows and Senator Spooner out of the field newspaper business ought to be looking up.

Just a Suspicion.

Exchange: Just where will Lieut. Gov. Connor land? Did he have an understanding with Spooner and Gov. Davidson last fall? The deal that induced him to take the chairmanship may develop now.

Literary Light.

Washington Herald: "It is all very well for Mark Twain to wear a white suit, but where does he strike his matches?" asks the Columbus Dispatch. He doesn't strike them; he is matchless.

As All Will Agree.

Milwaukee Journal: Friends and enemies alike will be bound to realize that Wisconsin will take a distinctly lower place in the senate and before the country with Senator Spooner in retirement.

Obsequies for McGovern.

Marion Advertiser: District Attorney is a dead one. His popularity is surely on the wane and it isn't very likely now that he will ever get to be governor. It's too bad. I'm sorry.

Chance to be Rid of Him.

Chicago Chronicle: Mr. Harriman says that he would like to build the isthmian canal. For goodness' sake let him have the chance. Nobody else seems willing to undertake the job.

Against Capitol Removal.

Exchange: It would take Oshkosh years to learn all the ways into the state treasury that Madison knows, and Oshkosh isn't slow either.

"Friday the Thirteenth."

Chicago Tribune: Nothing can stop Tom Lawson now. His next step will be to dramatize his grudge against the system.

Classifying the Critical.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Disparagement of Longfellow from critics who note on Oscar Wilde will not hurt the fame of Longfellow.

All and More Too.

New York Commercial: Evelyn Thaw has finished. It is believed she told all she knew, and some things she didn't know.

Seeks Shares in the Pie.

Chicago News: Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy's son seems to be of the opinion that all is not mind.

MORTUARY NEWS.

John Elefeldt
The funeral of the late John Elefeldt will be held from the home of his mother, Mrs. Barbara Banker, 315 South Main street, Wednesday afternoon at half past two o'clock. Rev. J. H. Tippet will officiate and burial will be at Oak Hill cemetery.

Miss Stella Conway
A dispatch from Sargent, Neb., today stated that the remains of the late Miss Stella Conway would arrive in Janesville Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. They will be taken immediately to St. Patrick's church, where mass will be celebrated and then interment will be made in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Ordwin Carl Duenow
Ordwin Carl Duenow, aged seven months and eight days, passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Duenow, six miles east of the city, yesterday morning. The funeral will be held from the home at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon and interment will be in the cemetery at Emerald Grove.

James Francis Root
Funeral services over the remains of the late James Francis Root were held from the home of his grandfather, Horace Root, on the Footville road, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. R. C. Denison officiated and Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Bagley sang. The pallbearers were: Bert Dennett, Ira Austin, George Austin, Clifford Austin, James Little and Marvin Helgeson. Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

Machine Does Fireman's Work.
A machine that will hurl coal into the firebox of a locomotive at the rate of 200 shovelfuls a minute, if necessary, will lighten the labor of the firemen on many engines. An order has been placed for 700 of these mechanical stokers at a cost of $350,000.

Bible Drove Him to Drink.
Abram B. Cartridge, very drunk, was picked up by the police force from the gutter on South Main street, says a dispatch from Waterbury, Conn. In his hand he clasped an open Bible and he spoke to the officers strangely in Scriptural phrases. In court Abram said that study of the Bible had driven him to his fall.

"It is so full of inconsistencies," he declared. "I learn its truths and am uplifted—then I discover that its truths are false, and I sink to the depths. How can I deliberately stay in my right mind, judge, when I find that the foundation of salvation is built on sand, and good liquor, which will make me forget it, is so cheap?" Cartridge was sent to jail for 30 days.

Proof of Good Memory.
"I got a shock from a 'lectric battery today," said the 'first' hobo. "Geo! It's a funny kind of a feeling; feels just like takin' a bath." "Say," exclaimed the 'other' one, "you must have a great memory."

TO FILL TICKET AT PRIMARIES

THAT IS THE DEMOCRATS' DEEP-LAID SCHEME.

VACANCIES ON BOTH SIDES

Republicans Have No Candidates in the Fifth Ward—Dems Have Passed Up the First and Third.

Entries for the spring election, via the nomination paper route, were closed last evening and a glance through the budget of documents suffices to indicate that the democratic city ticket is destined to be filled and there is a vacancy on either ticket, the person whose name is written in by the greatest number of voters will receive the nomination. A single ballot may nominate, providing but one person chances to be thought of enough to fill in any given blank. Both parties are therefore likely to fill out their entire tickets, though there is no guarantee that they will stay filled.

Stewart B. Heddles and William W. Watt, both republicans, are the only avowed candidates for mayor. Arthur E. Badger and Louis N. Skavlem, both republicans, are the only candidates for city clerk. Dr. S. B. Buckmaster, republican, only man who has been named for school commissioner at large. Charles W. Reeder, the only avowed candidate to succeed himself. For the one-year term as justice, however, the republicans present a candidate in Stanley D. Fullman and the democrats have one in Claude J. Hendricks. John W. Richardson, democrat, is a candidate for the office of scaler of weights and measures and the republicans have named no one for the office.

Situation in First Ward.
The ward tickets also present a number of vacancies on either side of the political fence. In the first ward the republican candidates are as follows: Alderman, J. W. Clark; Supervisor, George Woodruff; School Commissioner, James Shearer. The democrats have made no nominations.

Second Ward.
In the second ward the republican candidates are: Alderman, Frank H. Snyder; Supervisor, H. L. Skavlem. The democratic candidates are: Alderman, Edward H. Connell and John D. O'Hara; no nominee for supervisor.

Republican Fight in Third.
The third ward has a three-cornered republican fight on its hands. The candidates are: Alderman (2-yr. term), Edward Amerpohl, Harry W. Brown, and William M. Pfennig; Alderman (1-yr. term), Fred S. Sheldon; Supervisor, J. L. Bear; School Commissioner, Samuel M. Smith. The democrats have no nominees.

The Fourth Ward.
At the eleventh hour fourth ward republicans entered James E. Croft for the republican nomination for alderman. No one is named for supervisor. William C. Rehfeld is the democratic candidate for the nomination and Frank M. Brittain is to be the democratic nominee for supervisor.

Contest in the Fifth.
The republicans have no nominees in the fifth ward. The democrats have presented the names of the following aspirants: Alderman, John J. Dulla, and William A. Murray; Supervisor, Edward Rathman; School Commissioner, James Thayer.

Wedding Ring Superstition.
A quaint superstition is prevalent in many English villages. When a woman is going to be married every effort is made to prevent her from seeing her wedding ring before the ceremony, as it is considered that a sight of it except at the altar is bound to bring bad luck.

HEAVILY LADEN CAR TIPPED ONTO SIDE

North-Western Switching Crew Had Accident at Corner of River and Holmes Streets.

Late yesterday afternoon a North-Western switching crew tipped a heavily laden box-car onto its side at the corner of Holmes and South River streets. At this place two switch tracks intersect, one coming from the north runs to the Barb Wire works warehouse on the south side of Holmes street and another from the south parallels the side of the main factory building on the north. A large box-car had been "spotted" on the warehouse track and the draw-bar extended over one rail of the factory track. A car was pushed up over the latter and striking the protruding coupler pushed the big car over. The local wrecker was sent to the scene, but the car was not picked up until this morning. The car weighed 28,000 pounds and contained several tons of woven wire fencing.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Ran Hook into Leg: While handling baled hay at the store of W. T. Flaherty on the Court street bridge yesterday, Art Brown, son of Will Brown, accidentally struck his right leg with a jiffing hook and inflicted a deep wound near the knee. The cut was carefully dressed and it is believed that blood poison will be prevented.

Tearing Down "Sheels": The old wooden store buildings at 215 West Milwaukee street, where Fire Chief Henry C. Klein will erect a handsome new store building this summer, are being torn down.

Ex-Alderman Edward Bauman and family who have made their home on North Main street for many years are moving into a new residence at 165 Madison street.

Attorney Louis Avery and William Loucks attended the meeting of the Beloit common council last evening and the latter secured a license to open a five cent theatre in the Line City. He expects to start his amusement enterprise on Friday.

Died at Shop: Mrs. P. M. Allen, an old and respected resident of Shopiere, passed away at her daughter's, Mrs. D. H. Billings, Feb. 8, at the age of 75 years. Two children are left to mourn, Mrs. D. H. Billings of Silver Springs, Ark., and Charles H. Allen of Shopiere, and five grand-children. Rev. Mr. Bully of Clinton, officiated at the funeral.

Meeting of F. R. A.: Regular meeting of Rock Council No. 736, F. R. A., at eight o'clock sharp. Basket social after the meeting. All members are requested to attend. Mrs. Katherine Schumacher, secretary.

In La Prairie: On the evening of March 1st a very pleasant dancing and card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Willard of La Prairie. About seventy responded to their invitations. Supper was served about twelve o'clock and dancing was kept up until three in the morning.

In Justice Court: In Judge Reeder's court today a judgment for the plaintiff from the trustee in bankruptcy in the Paul Wikert proceedings.

Trial Adjourned: After the taking of testimony was concluded in the action of F. C. Mansfield vs. R. C. Bicknell in municipal court yesterday afternoon, the case was adjourned one week for argument.

Walked into Shaft: While delivering groceries for O. D. Bates yesterday morning Ira Crosby mistook the Myers hotel elevator door for the rear entrance to Con. McDonald's restaurant and walked into the open shaft. He fell to the bottom some distance below, badly bruising and cutting his head and face. Though not seriously injured he will not be at work for a few days.

Mission Well Attended: The mission meetings now being conducted at St. Patrick's church are being very largely attended and the church has been filled on several occasions. This evening one of the Jesuit fathers will preach on "The Future Life."

A Surprise Party: Thirty-eight friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rheinhold Zebal surprised them last evening and helped them celebrate the tenth anniversary of their wedding, leaving many reminders of their visit in tinware.

Marriage Licenses: Applications for marriage licenses have been filed by Herman H. Lovvorn of Magnolia and Augusta W. A. Geendlich of Center; Reinhold Becker and Clara Friedler, both of the town of Fulton.

BURNT CORKERS WILL HOLD SWAY THE 18TH

Imperial Band Benefit Minstrel Performance Will be Put on by Forty Local Artists.

Monday evening, March 18, is the date decided upon for the big amateur minstrel performance to be given at the Myers theatre under Imperial band auspices. Manager John L. Fletcher states that there will be forty stars of the first magnitude in the aggregation and that the welkin will be made to ring with the catchiest songs and the best gags and comedy skits heard in these parts in half a generation. Dances Bennett is directing the musical rehearsals and there was a full attendance at the tryout held the first of the week.

CIRCUS RECRUITS ON WAY TO BARABOO

Seventeen Were Attempting to Find Hiding Places on One Freight Train Yesterday.

Nearly every Northwestern freight train bound for Baraboo during the past few days has carried one or more recruits for the Ringling Brothers' circus, which soon departs from winter quarters. Some have ridden on the "blinds" of passenger trains, but almost without exception all have traveled on "hide passes." Seventeen were counted about one freight train in the local yards yesterday and each was hunting for some stowaway seat.

BIG-MONUMENT SALES.
Bresce Takes Orders For Much Work at Monroe.

Last week in Monroe, George Bresce, the monument man, booked orders for 40,000 lbs. of granite; one very nice job for Walter Twining, president of the M. & M. Bank of Monroe, and another handsome stone for Morris Fitzgerald, a member of the firm of Fitzgerald Brothers, large carriage manufacturers of that city. All told, Mr. Bresce has taken orders for upwards of one hundred tons of granite for Monroe alone this season.

His work about southern Wisconsin is becoming so well known that there is no difficulty in securing a great quantity of orders for the very finest work. His stock is very large and well assorted and his prices are moderate enough to please almost every prospective buyer.

HANDSOME GIFT TO SHAW

Retiring Secretary Presented with Silver Plate by Department Officials—Garfield Succeeds Hitchcock Tuesday.

Washington, March 5.—George Bruce Corteyou, at a few minutes before three o'clock Monday afternoon, relinquished the office of postmaster general to George Von Lengerke Meyer of Massachusetts, recently American ambassador at St. Petersburg.

Mr. Meyer took the oath of office in the private office of the postmaster general. It was administered by George G. Thompson, assistant chief clerk of the post office department.

The ceremony was witnessed by only the retiring postmaster general and the assistant postmasters general, Messrs. Shallenberger, Madden and De Graw.

At the conclusion of the administration of the oath, Mr. Corteyou and Mr. Meyer received the chiefs of bureaus and divisions of the department, the introductions being made by Merritt O. Chance, chief clerk of the department. The reception afforded Mr. Corteyou opportunity to take formal leave of the official force of the department and Mr. Meyer opportunity to meet those upon whom he in a measure must rely for a successful administration.

Corteyou at Treasury.

Mr. Corteyou was sworn in as secretary of the treasury at half past three o'clock, the oath being administered by Mr. Fitzpatrick, of the appointment division. The ceremony was quite informal, and the custom of inviting all the clerks connected with the treasury department in Washington to be present was dispensed with and only the assistant secretaries and the principal officials were invited to shake hands with the new secretary. In addition to the higher officials of the treasury department, there were present Mrs. Corteyou and her children and a number of other personal friends of the outgoing and incoming secretaries.

Fine Gift to Mr. Shaw.

After the close of the treasury department in the afternoon some 25 of the high officials of the department called on the retiring secretary, Mr. Shaw, at the Arlington hotel and presented to him a large mahogany case containing two dozen handsome silver service table plates on the back of which were engraved these words: "Presented to the Honorable Leslie M. Shaw, formerly secretary of the treasury by some associated with him in official work, in pleasant memory of a friendship that enriches the donors. March the fourth, nineteen hundred and seven."

Mr. Yerkes, the commissioner of internal revenue, on behalf of the donors, made the presentation speech. Mr. Shaw in his response showed that he was deeply moved by this evidence of the regard in which he is held.

James R. Garfield of Ohio, who relinquished Monday the office of commissioner of corporations, Tuesday succeeded Ethan Allen Hitchcock of Missouri as secretary of the interior. Mr. Garfield and the retiring secretary, Mr. Hitchcock, informally received the bureau and division chiefs of the interior department Monday afternoon in the secretary's office.

Aged Millionaire Is Dead.

St. Louis, March 5.—Samuel H. Leathe, an octogenarian and reputed millionaire, died at his home Monday after an illness of two weeks. Extreme age was primarily the cause of death. His wife, from whom he was for a time separated, was his constant companion and nurse during his illness.

Mr. Leathe was an intimate friend of Kit Carson, the scout.

Ellen Hastings Honeyette

Ellen Brown Hastings was born at Gatehouse, Kirkcubrightshire, Scotland, Aug. 3, 1855, and came with her parents to America in the year 1869 and settled south of Footville on a farm. On March 15, 1882, she was united in marriage with Walter Honeyette and lived on the farm until they moved to Footville in 1899, where they have since resided. On Feb. 17 she was taken suddenly ill with inflammatory rheumatism and after a week of intense suffering the brain was reached and death ended a useful life among us. She leaves to mourn her death besides a loving husband two brothers and four sisters, three of whom are still across the sea; also a large circle of other relatives and friends. During the winter of 1904 and 1905 she with her husband made a trip to England and Scotland which was very much enjoyed. The funeral was held from the Christian church in Footville Thursday, Feb. 28th, where a large group of relatives and old friends were gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to one we all loved.

THE HOUSE OF A THOUSAND CANDLES

CHAPTER XXVI.

Shorter Vistas.

Larry had assembled his effects in the library, and to my surprise, Stoddard appeared with his own hand-bag. "I'm going to see Donovan on his way," said the clergyman.

"It's a pity our party must break up," exclaimed my grandfather. "My obligations to Mr. Donovan are very great—and to you, too, Stoddard. Jack's friends are mine hereafter, and when we get new doors for Glenarm House you shall honor me by accepting duplicate keys."

"Where's Bates?" asked Larry, and the man came in, respectfully, imperceptibly as always, and began gathering up the bags.

"Stop—one moment! Mr. Glenarm," said Larry. "Before I go I want to congratulate you on the splendid courage of this man who has served you and your house with so much faithfulness and tact. And I want to tell you something else, that you probably would never learn from him—"

"Donovan!" There was a sharp cry ing to see you quite to your own door! I don't intend to put my hand to the lantern, and then turn back!"

"This walk isn't what it should be," said my grandfather, "we'll have to make a better one in the spring."

Then they were silent, and I heard him furtively striking a match, when suddenly the lantern fell, its wires rattling as it struck the ground, and the two, exclaiming with renewed merriment upon their misfortune.

"If you will allow me!" I called out, fumbling in my pocket for my own matchbox.

I have sometimes thought that there is really some sort of decent courtesy to me. An old man caught in a rough path that was none too good at best! And a girl, even though my enemy! But these were not, I fancy, the reflections that crossed my mind at the moment.

"Ah, it's Jack," exclaimed my grandfather. "Marian was showing me the way to the gate and our light went out."

"Miss Devereux," I murmured. I have, I hope, an icy tone for persons who have incurred my displeasure, and I employed it then and there, with, no doubt, its fullest value.

She and my grandfather were groping in the dark for the lost lantern.

"Miss Devereux," I murmured. I have, I hope, an icy tone for persons who have incurred my displeasure, and I employed it then and there, with, no doubt, its fullest value.

She and my grandfather were groping in the dark for the lost lantern.

"I Wanted You to Come, Squire Glenarm!"

and I, putting out my hand, touched her unglazed fingers.

"I beg your pardon," she murmured frostily.

Then I found and grasped the lantern.

"One moment," I said, "and I'll see what's the trouble."

I thought my grandfather took it, but the flame of my wax match showed her fingers clasping the wire frame. The cloak slipped away, showing her arm's soft curve, the blue and white of her bodice, the purple blur of violets; and for a second I saw her face, with a smile quivering about her lips.

My grandfather was heating the ground impatiently with his stick, urging us to leave the lantern and go on.

"Let it alone," he said. "I'll go down through the chapel; there's a lantern in there somewhere."

"I'm awfully sorry," she said, "but I recently lost my best lantern!"

To be sure she had! I was angry that she should so brazenly recall the night I found her looking for Pickering's notes in the passage at the door of Bewilderment!

She had lifted the lantern now, and I was striving to touch the wax taper to the wick, with imminent danger to my bare fingers.

"They don't really light well when the oil's out," she observed, with an exasperating air of wisdom.

I took it from her hand and shook it close to my ear.

"Yes; of course, it's empty," I muttered disdainfully, and threw it from me.

"Oh, Mr. Glenarm!" she cried, turning away toward my grandfather.

I heard his stick beating the rough path several yards away. He was hastening toward Glenarm House.

"I think Mr. Glenarm has gone home."

"Oh, that is too bad!" she exclaimed.

"Thank you! He's probably at the chapel by this time. If you will permit me—"

"Not at all!"

A man in the sixties, should not tax his arteries too severely. I was quite sure that my grandfather ran up the chapel steps; I could hear his stick beating hurriedly on the stones.

"If you wish to go farther"—I began.

I was indignant at my grandfather's conduct; he had deliberately run off, leaving me alone with a young woman whom I had resolved never to see again.

"Thank you; I shall go back now. I was merely walking to the gate with Mr. Glenarm. It is so fine to have him back again, so unbelievable!"

It was just such a polite murmur as one might employ in speaking to an old foe at a friend's table.

She listened a moment for his step; then, apparently satisfied, turned back toward St. Agatha's. I followed, uncertain, hesitating, marking her definite onward flight. From the folds of the night I came here and found him the defender of this house. By God; that was no servant's trick—it was the act of a royal gentleman."

They clasped hands, and with a new light in his face, with a new manner, as though he resumed, as a familiar garment, an old disused personality, Bates stood transfixed in the twilight, a man and a gentleman. I think we were all drawn to him. I know that a sob clutched my throat and tears filled my eyes as I grasped his hand.

"But what in the devil did you do it for?" blurted my grandfather, excitedly twirling his glasses.

Bates (I still call him Bates—he insists on it) laughed. For the first time he thrust his hands into his pockets and stood at his ease, one of us.

"Larry, you may remember that I showed a fondness for the stage in our university days. When I got to America I had little money and found it necessary to find employment without delay. I saw Mr. Glenarm's advertisement for a valet. Just as a lark I answered it to see what an American gentleman seeking a valet looked like. I fell in love with Mr. Glenarm at sight."

"And I with you!" declared my grandfather. "I never believed your story at all—you were too perfect in the part!"

"Well, I didn't greatly mind the valet business; it helped to hide my identity; and I did like the humor and whims of Mr. Glenarm. The house-keeping, after we came out here, wasn't so pleasant—he looked at his hands ruefully—but this joke of Mr. Glenarm's making a will and then going to Egypt to see what would happen—that was too good to miss. And, when the heir arrived I found new opportunities of practicing amateur theatricals; and Pickering's efforts to enlist me in his scheme for finding the money and making me rich gave me still greater opportunities. There were times when I was strongly tempted to blurt the whole thing; I got tired of being suspected, and of playing ghost in the wall; and if Mr. Glenarm hadn't got here just as he did I should have stopped the fight and proclaimed the truth. I hope," he said, turning to me, "you have no hard feelings, sir." And he threw into the "sir" just a touch of irony that made us all roar.

"I'm certainly glad I'm not dead," declared my grandfather, staring at Bates. "Life is more fun than I ever thought possible. Bless my soul!" he said, "if it isn't a shame that Bates can never cook another omelette for me!"

We sent Bates back with my grandfather from the boat-house, and Stoddard, Larry and I started across the ice; the light coating of snow made walking comparatively easy. We strode on silently, Stoddard leading. Their plan was to take an accommodation train at the first station beyond Annandale, leave it at a town 40 miles away; and then hurry east to an obscure place in the mountains of Maryland where a religious order maintained a house. There Stoddard promised Larry asylum and no questions asked.

As my two friends waved farewell to me from the rear platform of their train a mood of depression seized me. I had lost much that day, and what I had gained—my restoration to the regard of the kind old man of my own blood, who had appealed for my companionship in terms hard to deny—seemed trifling as I tramped back over the ice. Perhaps Pickering, after all, was the real gainer by the day's events!

I tramped on back toward the Glenarm shore, and leaving the lake, half-unconsciously struck into the wood beyond the dividing wall. The melted snow of mid-day was now crisp ice that rattled and broke under my tread. I came out into an open space beyond St. Agatha's, found the walk and turned toward home in the gathering night.

As I neared the main entrance to the school the door opened and a woman came out under the overhanging lamp. She carried a lantern, and turned with a hand outstretched to some one who followed her with careful steps.

"Ah, Marian," cried my grandfather, "it's ever the task of youth to light the way for age!"

Spasms St. Vitus' Dance

Many persons who suffered untold agonies from epilepsy, fits, spasms, and St. Vitus' Dance are today well. The strengthening influence of Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic upon the shattered nerves having restored them to perfect health.

"I endured agony that words cannot express from St. Vitus' dance, which followed a severe spasm of the stomach. I doctored with a physician, but the more I took of his medicine the worse I felt. My mother's doctor saved me. After she had become almost heart-broken, as well as physically exhausted from constant care, by the advice of a neighbor she procured a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic. From the first dose to the last a continual change for the better was apparent, and when I had taken eleven bottles I was well, and in robust health."

EDWARD D. HEAM, North Manchester, Indiana.

"Our little boy Harry, had spasms for three years, and although we doctored with many physicians, he continued to grow worse until he had ten spasms in one week. About that time our attention was called to Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic. We began giving it to him. His improvement seemed slow, but when he had finished the fourth bottle the spasms had disappeared, and have not been seen since. We shall always recommend Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic."

J. D. Rockefeller Drops Hint as He Leaves New York.

New York, March 5.—A remark which John D. Rockefeller made to several reporters before starting for Augusta, Ga., Monday, led to the publication of a report that he contemplates another large gift to the cause of education or philanthropy. In explaining himself to the reporters Mr. Rockefeller said:

"I have matters of great importance to discuss with my son, matters of more importance to the public in the future than any chance remarks I might make just now."

"Do you mean that you contemplate the announcement of another bequest to the cause of education?" was asked.

"All I can say," Mr. Rockefeller replied, "is that I have something in mind which I believe will be of great benefit to the public."

EIGHT JURORS FOR DAVIS CASE.

Rapid Progress Made in Trial of Chicago Theater Manager.

Danville, Ill., March 5.—More rapid progress than was expected was made during the first day of the trial of Will J. Davis of Chicago, charged with manslaughter in connection with the burning of nearly 600 persons in the Iroquois theater of Chicago, of which he was manager.

Eight jurors had been accepted when court adjourned Monday evening. Not more than half the venire of 49 had been examined and it is now believed that a jury will be found Tuesday without a special venire.

Dutch Heroes Are Decorated.

Hook of Holland, Holland, March 5.—Prince Henry of the Netherlands, in behalf of Queen Wilhelmina, Monday decorated Capt. BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe! Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of childbirth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain.

TAME ENDING FOR 59TH CONGRESS

"LAST DAY ENTHUSIASM" IS CHECKED BY FATIGUE.

PRESIDENT IN AT FINISH

Signs Bills and Says Farewells—Minority Thanks Presiding Officers—Silver Service, Presented to Grosvenor.

Washington, March 5.—With a new record for large appropriations and far-reaching legislation, the fifty-ninth congress was brought to a close shortly after noon Monday. The last few hours were calm, in fact tame, by comparison with what had been expected.

Long before noon Senator Gallinger's fight for the passage of the ship subsidy bill had been abandoned and the filibuster against it conducted by Senator Carmack being no longer necessary, he surrendered the floor, much to the disappointment of the galleries. Extreme fatigue, due to continued night sessions in the house during the last week, had a dampening effect upon many congressmen and the usual excessive "last day enthusiasm" was confined to less than half the membership.

Despite these conditions the audiences in both houses were as large as they ever have been. Thousands thronged the corridors unable to secure admission to either branch.

President Busy Signing Bills.

One of the interesting features incident to the close of the congress was the visit of President Roosevelt who, with his cabinet, White House staff and a number of guests, occupied the president's room in the senate wing. Seated at a big table in the center of the room, he signed bills as they were enrolled and presented to him. On account of the dispatch with which business has been conducted during the past week there were only 40 bills to be signed Monday.

The president was at the capitol for more than an hour. He devoted most of the time to visiting with his cabinet, both the retiring and incoming members being present, and to presenting them to personal friends of the senate and house. Retiring senators were received and without exception the president expressed regret that these lawmakers were to leave the service of the country. Especially warm was his reception to Senator Spooner, who has just announced his voluntary retirement.

When the members of the committee which waited upon him with the information that congress was ready to adjourn, had delivered their message, the president thanked them for the laws that had been enacted, but he added with a smile that he still had several bills that would be heard from in the future. This amounted to good natured but direct notice to congress that he had not abandoned the several recommendations for legislation which had not met with congressional favor this session.

Presiding Officers Thanked. Vice President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon received the thanks of the minority for the impartial manner in which they had presided over the deliberations of the two houses, and both of these officers made speeches expressing gratitude at the words of appreciation.

A feature of the house session was the presentation of a club silver service of 300 pieces to Gen. Grosvenor by his colleagues of the fifty-ninth congress. Speeches of regret at the veteran Ohioan's retirement were made from both sides of the chamber.

In addition to the songs and stories that usually mark the close of a session, there was a beautiful picture formed by the entire house-rising and waving flags and singing "My Country 'tis of Thee" as the gavel fell at 12:15 p. m.

In the senate the last of the proceedings was the speech by Vice President Fairbanks prior to adjournment at 12:13 p. m. His remarks were applauded by the thousands of visitors and the applause continued as the audience watched with interest the farewells of senators on the floor.

British Soldiers' Heavy Helmet.

The British soldier wears the heaviest helmet in the world, for his head-gear weighs no less than 18 ounces, while that of the Prussian infantryman is only a trifle over 14 ounces and that of the Italian just under 12 ounces. The forage caps of both France and Russia weigh less than eight ounces, while that of Japan is the lightest of all, as it turns the scale at a little over four ounces.

Tunisian Bazars.

Real storehouses of delight for the visitor are the bazars of Tunis. One merchant has a $5,000 carpet which he likes to display. This huge, filmy creation he will fling into the air for the benefit of a possible customer, and allow it to settle itself gradually on the ground. This it does, unlike an ordinary carpet. So exquisitely fine is the weaving that it imprisons air bubbles large enough to hold a man.

JOHN HAD BEEN RETRIEVED.

Friend Told Good Lie and Stuck to It, But Without Avail.

This being a true story of a recent occurrence the prominent politician will be known as Mr. John Brown, and his intimate friend, a politician of less prominence, as Mr. James McCoy. It seems that at about noon Mr. Brown was unduly exhilarated when seen by his friend, and after exacting from him a promise that he would at once go home Mr. McCoy went to his office. About three o'clock in the afternoon he responded to a telephone call and was just a little flurried on learning that Mrs. Brown was at the other end of the wire.

"Have you seen John to-day?" she asked. "I did, Mrs. Brown. He was called away on important business this morning, but just a little while ago I got a message from him that he would start back on the next train. He'll be in town in about an hour."

Mr. McCoy was still at work in his office at five o'clock, when again he was called to the telephone. Again it was Mrs. Brown.

"Has John got back yet, Mr. McCoy?"

"Yes, but he had several important matters to attend to, and just started for the street car a few minutes ago. He'll be home in three-quarters of an hour at the latest."

"I am very much obliged, Mr. McCoy, but I put John to bed half an hour ago."

All of which goes to show that there are times when a lie well stuck to is not as good as the truth.

WHERE AMERICA IS SUPREME.

Traveler Praises Coffee Served in This Country.

"It is refreshing to me," said the smartly gowned woman, "to get back to America, where I can have water and good coffee to drink with my meals."

"Oh, yes, of course, one can buy bottled water in Europe, but somehow one seldom does; at least not to use on the table. One drinks according to the country over there, and the natives seem as ignorant of the uses of water, internally at least, as a Kentucky colonel."

"In England I drank ale and tea; in France, claret; in Italy, Chianti; in Germany, beer and Moselle and Rhine wine, and in Holland, coffee."

"No, I did not like the coffee they make in France, notwithstanding we hear so much in our own restaurants about French coffee. Neither do I care for Turkish coffee. In fact, America and Holland—or, I should say, New York and Holland—are the only places in the world where I can find coffee to suit me."

Latent Christianity.

The fact is, that there is a great and growing leaven of latent Christianity outside the churches. In our times it has become much more likely than not that the first stranger you meet in the street might safely be trusted with your purse or your reputation. The love of truth and honesty is by no means a monopoly of church-going people.—Methodist Times.

His One Chance.

Ardent Swain (to object of his affection)—For several weeks past I have been trying to speak to you, Miss Rosa, but you never gave me the chance of putting in a word. I therefore gladly avail myself of your temporary hoarseness to make you an offer of marriage.

Cremation of the Dead.

Cremation is one of the most ancient methods of disposing of the dead. Before the beginning of the Christian era, cremation prevailed among all civilized nations, except the Jews, Chinese and Egyptians. Later, however, this form gave way to earth burial. Cremation has had a revival during the last few years, and from one crematory in existence in 1880, there were over 50 in 1890, and since then others have been added to the list each year. Cremation is common in Japan, where 47 per cent. of the dead are incinerated. The first crematory in the United States was built at Washington, Pa., in 1876, by Dr. Le Moine, and the first incineration there was that of the body of Baron de Palm, which took place in December of the same year. This was the only crematory in the United States until 1884.—Sunday Magazine.

Mount Kosciuszko Park.

A hundred square miles of country around Mount Kosciuszko, one of the highest peaks of the Australian Alps, has been proclaimed a reserve by the government, with a view of the formation of a national park. "Freedom shrieked when Kosciuszko fell," according to the poet Campbell, and this peak was so named by a brother Polish patriot, the late Count de Strzelecki, a political refugee, who spent several years in Australia and did some valuable exploring and geological work. He was probably the first discoverer of gold in Australia, but at the request of the local government, which feared an outbreak of the convict population if the news became known, he made no public announcement of the fact. He spent the closing years of his life in London and was knighted by Queen Victoria.

The Crowning Folly.

Filling one's mind with gloomy, somber thoughts is like hanging ugly funeral pictures on the walls of a sunlit room.

When Health Doesn't Count.

Science says now that kissing on the lips must be abolished in the interests of health. Most potent, grave and reverend seigniors, scholars and philosophers, there are moments you know nothing of, when a man doesn't care twopence for science, and when he is going to plant kisses where they belong if the laws of health are ripped from one end to the other.

Strange Foods.

The Indians of this country were not afraid to eat grasshoppers, and the desert Hebrew tribes of Palestine thought locusts a dainty dish. In the West Indies the negroes eat freely of the big grub found in palm trees. The fat, white morsel, which they call "gru-gru," is not cooked or salted. The aborigines of Australia live almost entirely on a butterfly known as the bugong.

Where Webster Drew the Line.

In the New York Times "W. C. D." of Newton, Mass., says that in his library is the following letter from Daniel Webster in answer to a request that he take a certain case for a contingent fee: "I do not desire employment in professional matters, although I do sometimes engage in them. But I never engage on contingencies merely, for that would make me a mere party to a lawsuit. D. W."

Knew Her Superiority.

One of Washington's high school principals relates an incident in connection with last commencement day. A clever girl had taken one of the principal prizes. Her friends crowded about her to offer congratulations. "Weren't you awfully afraid you wouldn't get it, Hattie?" asked one, "when there were so many contestants?" "Oh, no!" cheerily exclaimed Hattie. "Because I knew that when it came to English composition I had 'em all skinned."
